

I've been extremely satisfied with Indiana's Telephone Privacy act. Please do not change the law for the interests of banking or any other interests for that matter.

If I want to do business with the bank I will contact them. They send my plenty of material through US mail as it is. I really don't want to be hounded by them in my home any more than that!